

1. Confidential Information means any and all non-public information disclosed by one party to the other, whether oral or written, marked confidential.

2. The Receiving Party shall hold the Confidential Information in strict confidence and not disclose it to any third party without prior written consent.

3. The obligations of confidentiality shall survive termination of this Agreement for a period of five years from the date of disclosure.

4. Nothing in this Agreement grants the Receiving Party any licence or right in the Confidential Information other than as expressly set out herein.

5. Each party shall promptly notify the other of any unauthorised disclosure of the Confidential Information of which it becomes aware.

6. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of England and Wales.

7. The parties submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England and Wales in respect of any dispute arising out of this Agreement.

8. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties relating to its subject matter.
